13 No person except the power of Attorney holder shall be entitled to bid for anoter person.

14 A tender submitted or a bid offered jointly by more persons than one shall not be accepted unless such persons are members of a Registered Company or Firm and the Tender or the bid is submitted or made on behalf of such company or firm.

15 The officer conducting the auction shall refuse to register as purchaser any person in whose name the bidding has not been proceeded.

16 The officer conducting the auction may at his discretion refuse to accept the bid or offer of any person on the ground that it is too low or that such person has been convicted by a Criminal Court or has previously been guilty of such a breach of conditions of contract under the Excise Act or for any other valid reasons. He may also refuse any bid or offer which he may consider to be purely speculative recording his reasons for doing so.

17 A person holding an office of profit under the State Government or the Central Government shall be disqualified from submitting a tender for bidding at an auction either personally or through another person on his behalf.

18 No defaulter who is in arrears of Excise Revenue to Government shall be eligible to bid at the auction, unless he produces a Certificate from the Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Division Officer or Excise Superintendent stating that the non-payment of arrears due by him is due to its not having been determined, or to its being in dispute or under correspondence nor will the heirs or other members of the joint family or a such defaulter be eligible to bid at the sale.

19 The highest bid shall be recorded and signature of the bidder will be obtained on the bidders list, in token of his offer of that bid. No bids shall be allowed thereafter, then the tenders, if any, received shall be opened and statement prepared. The highest offer received whether by tender or in auction may be accepted by the officer conducting the auction.

The officer conducting the auction may reject any offer or bid, if in his opinion, it is not satisfactory. The acceptance of an offer or bid by the officer conducting the auction shall be subject to the condition of the confirmation by the Excise Commissioner in Mysore Bangalore.

20 If the officer conducting the auction rejects the highest bid or offer, he may either accept the next highest bid or offer or re-sale the contract.

21 The person whose bid or offer is accepted shall at once make payment to the auction amount deducting the Earnest money already paid. If such further payment is not made, the deposit made by him under conditions (6 or 10) shall be forfeited and the Contract shall be put up again immediately to auction on the above conditions at the risk of the defaulter, who shall be debaired from bidding again. The successful bidders shall be granted receipt for the amount deposited by them.

22 Education and Health cess at the prescribed rate shall also be payable.

23 Sales Tax and octroi at the prescribed rates and other taxes that may be levied under any other law shall also be payable by the person whose bid will be accepted.

24 As regards matters not specifically provided in this notification, the existing Rules and conditions for auction prescribed under the Hyderabad Abkari Act will continue to be in force.

25 The successful bidders shall produce to the Deputy Commissioner concerned, before confirmation of the Sales an Income Tax clearance or verification certificate as per Government Official Memo No. FD 80 RTP 59, dated 17th October 1959.

26 It is the look out of the Contractor to find a Market for the disposal of Gulmohwa Flowers and Seeds obtained in the auction and to secure and produce an Export permit from the competent Excise authority of that State for issue of an Export permit by the Deputy Commissioner, Gulbarga.
